To Whom It May Concern,

Bianca interned with us for the month of January 2018 and although she was only with us a short time, she quickly became an asset and integral part of our creative team. She worked on many brand initiatives of varying sizes and scopes and approached each project with a high level of enthusiasm, collaboration and creative thinking. She worked just as easily independently and as part of a larger team.

Bianca is easy-going, adaptable and a hard worker. I have no doubt that she will be an asset to any creative organization in the future.

Should you have any questions, I invite you to contact me personally.

Sincerely,

Luis Coderque
